NOMINATION DAY IN BRITISH COLUMBIA

Liberals Have Straight Party Candidates in Forty Constituencies and Have Affiliated With Labor Men in the Other Two—Socialists Have Twenty-Five Candidates in the Field—Looks Like Easy Victory for the Liberal Party Throughout the Province

Bulletin Special.
Victoria, B.C., Jan. 21.—Nominations were made today for the 42 seats in the Provincial Legislature, elections to which take place on Feb. 22. The Liberals have a complete ticket in all the constituencies, straight Liberal nominees being put everywhere but in Nanaimo and Newcastle, strictly labor constituencies hitherto dominated by the Socialists, where this election candidates are run representing labor and liberalism conjointly. The Conservatives have a dummy candidate in Nanaimo and no nominee in Newcastle, supposedly as a result of an understanding between Hawthorthwaite, the Socialist leader, and Premier McBride continuing their compact of last session. The Socialist party have about 35 candidates throughout the province and the strictly Labor party, born at the last session of the Dominion Trades Congress, have several candidates in the outlying districts. There is popular dissatisfaction at the ill-timed arrangement of the election, it being almost impossible at this season in such districts as Skeena, Atlin, Northern Cariboo, Alberni, etc., for the electors to reach the polling places, the roads being new and causes the customary vehicles of the country. A preliminary review of the situation at this date indicates that the Liberals will carry 33 seats, the Conservatives 14, the Socialists 4 and the Independent Laborists 1.

TRUSTEES CONVENTION

Mr. J. M. McCaig stated this morning that arrangements for the convention of trustees have been completed. The meetings of the convention will be held in the Sandison block. the delegates will attend the opening of the legislature. On Wednesday a complimentary concert will be given by the united school boards of the city to the visiting delegates and citizens. A fine program is being prepared in which the best local talent will assist. Premier Rutherford and Mayor Griesbach will be present and deliver addresses. The concert will be in the Edmonton opera house.

COAL HAULERS REMAIN OUT

Men From Milner Join Association Which Is Now 250 Strong—Rigs Wearing Cards To Day—Cartage Company Refused Loads at the Mine

The coal situation remains unchanged since Saturday. The transporters of the John Milner mine are still on strike. All the coal haulers from this mine have joined the coal haulers' association, except one, and declare they will remain out until their demands are satisfactorily met.

Mr. Milner shows no attitude of yielding and will put on other haulers. He claims that the association is a temporary affair and that when spring comes they will return to their homes, leaving the delivery in the hands of the haulers who are really needed to cope with the bad roads.

Over 200 cards have been issued to members of the coal haulers' association. Nearly every team has a card on the spring. A few teams were allowed to haul who did not carry cards but President Michelson stated today that by tomorrow all teams would be so. Four teams belonging to one of the cartage companies in the city were returned loads at the mine today because they had not signed their intention of going into the coal haulers' association.

A MILITARY RESERVE.

Ontario and Dominion Complete Arrangements for Petawawa Training Grounds.

Bulletin Special.
Toronto, Jan. 21.—Sir Frederick Borden called on Premier Whitney and Hon. Mr. Cochrane on Saturday in reference to matters connected with Petawawa military training grounds. The Provincial Government owns 75,000 acres in all to the Dominion for 30 years at a nominal rental, ten dollars per year, for the whole area, on condition that Ontario authorize a deal with some settlers and timber licensees who have rights thereon. The settlers were bought out at cost to the Dominion of about $400,000. One of the timber licensees belonging to the Hinchey Lumber Company, has also been dealt with, but the Pembroke Lumber Company will not accept the terms offered. It was suggested by the provincial authorities that the matter be referred to arbitration. Sir Frederick, however, argued that for the present Hon. Mr. Cochrane use his good offices in endeavoring to secure a reasonable settlement with this company.

Preparations for the opening of the legislature on Thursday afternoon by the Lieutenant Governor are now practically complete.

PROBABLY AN ERROR.

Call Dispatch Says that 1017 Dead Have Been Identified in Kingston.

Bulletin Special.

Terrible Calamity to Calgary Family

Mr. Ferdinand was found near the stove. Mr. Ferdinand was in bed. Two children were upstairs but they were covered up and though there were evidences that they had been sick they had lived through the day. When found the two little ones were terribly frozen. One poor little child of three had gotten up from its cot and snuggled up next to its dead father in an attempt to keep warm. Its legs were frozen to the knees. The other smaller child in the crib was also terribly frozen. The police theory of the tragedy is that the accident occurred at least two nights ago. They believe that Ferdinand was first overcome with the cold and that his wife rose to fix the stove pipe which had come apart, that she was driven back to bed by the pangs of parturition, that she was delivered of this child, and that she rose up again, making a last supreme effort to save herself and her children, and finally fainting by the stove, where she died. Footprints were plainly visible on a chair by the stove showing where the woman had tried vainly to connect the unjointed stove pipe.

SMALLPOX AT HIGH RIVER

The smallpox outbreak will occasion considerable inconvenience to the Agricultural Department. The live stock will have to be reshipped to Red Deer, where there has been no time to make proper preparations.

Chicago, Jan. 21.—Twenty-five persons were killed, twenty of whom are believed to have been passengers, in a collision between an eastbound passenger train and a westbound freight near Fowler, Ind., today. Soon after the wreck the ruins caught fire from the engine, and all the coaches except the private car of Vice-President Schaff were destroyed. Speaking Generally Deputy Warehouse Inspector Snow Says That Farmers Are Lax in Asking Warehouse Receipt—Alberta Grain Buyers Using 35-Pound Standard for Oats

Mr. Matthew Snow, deputy warehouse commissioner, Winnipeg, was in the city on Saturday and left this morning for the south again. Mr. Snow's duties are to visit all elevator points and ascertain how for the elevators and warehouses are carrying out the law. In the terms of the Manitoba Grain Act when the Alberta Grain Commission held their annual in Edmonton last December it was observed that a great many farmers did not know that such an officer existed. Mr. C. C. Casle is the grain buyer for the south and is in the city at Winnipeg. He says, Mr. Snow, is out on the road from the time the grain begins to move until the end of the season in April or May. To the Bulletin Mr. Snow stated that either Mr. Casle or himself would be glad to receive any assistance from farmers and use their good offices in arriving at a settlement.

Bulletin Special.
Cincinnati, Ohio, Jan. 21.—With the crest of the flood waters in the Ohio not yet in sight the financial loss in Cincinnati and vicinity due to high water is already half a million. Bulletin Special.

To the Bulletin Mr. Snow stated that either Mr. Casle or himself would be glad to receive any assistance from farmers and use their good offices in arriving at a settlement.

Asked if the elevator men were observing the law in respect to weighing grain, Mr. Snow said that he found that generally speaking the provisions of the grain act were being carried out. There were some points, however, where the elevator operators did not show the proper regard to the law. He said that the grain act was a license posted in a conspicuous place, to see his grain weighed.

VANCOUVER FLOODED.

Vancouver, B.C., Jan. 21.—A sudden heavy yesterday caused torrents of water to rush down through the streets. Store basements were flooded and thousands of dollars worth of goods damaged.

Bulletin Special.
Rossland, B.C., Jan. 21.—The extraordinary cold weather and snowfall have resulted in so hampering the railroads that there is a considerable shortage of coal and coke. In consequence some of the smelters in the Boundary have closed down, and others are running light. A shortage of coke has also interfered with the handling of ore. A chinook wind is badly needed.

Bulletin Special.
Hamilton, Ont., Jan. 20.—In the high wind today windows in many of the stores were broken, and signs and chimneys were blown down. The storm played havoc with the wires of the Cataract Power Company. The organs in the churches, which are operated by electricity, could not be used, and the street and house lights all went out about 9 o'clock this evening.

Mr. May stated this morning that work on the extension for the new post office building will commence about the first of February. Already he has a gang of men putting up the scaffolding which is to be used in the construction of the new post office. The post office building will cost approximately $140,000.

AN OVERTSIGHT

Premier Roblin, of Manitoba, having leased a large area of land on the shore of Lake Winnipeg to Senator Kinschneider, as a "lock step" to secure, the Winnipeg Telegram attempts to detract attention from the dead by accusing the Federal Government of an inattention to do likewise. The charge falls however in a couple of fairly important particulars. If the lands are swampy lands they belong to Manitoba and the Dominion Government has nothing to do with them; if they are not swamp lands nobody would want them for a duck shooting preserve.

THE SILENT ONES

—Silence continues and unbroken lies upon the camp of the enemy—a month since reemerged with roars for vengeance on the perpetrators of the coal famine. Along the firing line the journalistic sentries slumber, habitually indifferent to the pleadings from private trenches where families congregated about a common fire to ease out their scant supply of fuel. Nor from headquarters comes any sign of renewing the battle. The coal famine is to the Opposition a thing beneath interest, a vision that peeled out, a hope that promised fair but performed but ill.

It was not over this. A month ago the Goliath of the Opposition pines swayed and stormed and called upon the fury of the powers temporal to descend upon the rapacious mineowners for whose inconsiderate greed the settlers of Saskatchewan shivered and suffered in their fireless homes. The mine owners were paraded as a set of rascals whose criminal indifference should be reformed by the seizure of their mines as a whole of irresponsible who ought to be made work whether they would or not.

This was of course the preliminary ground work for an assault on the Dominion Government. The attack was not long delayed and centred on the two points that the Government, declined to become either pirates or slave-drivers. For not setting the mines off-hand, without inquiry, evidence or argument the Government was denounced with a vigor equalled only by that with which they were condemned for not forcing the miners to work whether they wanted to or not, whether the remuneration they received was satisfactory or not. Mention in the House Mr. John Hannon, M.P., was made the leader of an attack directed against the same objective, but proceeding by a different angle. While the resolution introduced by Mr. Hannon and the speech which he affixed to it had little in common they at least agreed in accusing the Government of responsibility for the coal shortage.

But when the fury of their wrath had somewhat spent itself and calmed them to discern the tenor of the evidence pouring in upon them as to who was responsible for the shortage a change came over the disposition of our Opposition friends. As the noise of their own declamations lulled they heard the Frank Threlkeld Trade calling for the Railway Commission to hold out why the mines in the Crow's Nest Pass could not get cars and declaring that if they could have done so there would have been no coal shortage. In addition to this came the declarations of the newspapers published in the Pass country, the assertions in the Calgary press that while the miners in the south are idle for want of cars there is an overabundance of rolling stock to handle the output of the C. P. R. mines at Banstead. With these testimonies before them it is suddenly occurred to our Opposition friends that the fury they had supposed themselves expending on the Government had really been exhausted in pursuing the C. P. R.

The Opposition was up against it. Retreat was impossible. Their condemnations of the parties responsible for the shortage was too much for them. They were too unequalled to be either denied or explained away. It remained only to continue that condemnation with the C. P. R. as the objective or to let the coal famine drop into oblivion. Which course the Opposition has pursued let their silence answer.

QUEEN VICTORIA.

Tuesday, the third inst., is the anniversary of the death of Queen Victoria. The daughters of the Empire of Westward Ho! Chapter, are taking steps to have it commemorated especially among the children. They believe that no special commemoration is necessary among those who spent a considerable part of life under her rule, but they think it very important that the rising generation should be taught to revere those qualities of womanhood for which the name of Queen Victoria stands. For these purposes they have requested the teachers of the city schools to devote a short time on Tuesday to a study of the many-sided life of the late Empress Queen. This they think will always be an inspiration to the teacher. The public acts of the late Queen have already passed into history and these have marked her as a wise and beneficent ruler. But Queen Victoria rendered a much greater service to her vast Empire than any sovereign could possibly render through means of official acts. Those services are to be found in the open book of her actual life. Living in the limelight of the world's gaze as Imperial Mistress of the world's greatest Empire she traversed through over sixty years of toil and trouble, those simple, lady qualities of wife, mother and friend which are the very core of a nation's true greatness. For so living she ought to be remembered through all time that her life may be an inspiration and a guide to all generations.

"And leave us rulers of your blood. As noble till the latest day! May children of our children say She wrought her people lasting good."

Her court was pure; her life serene. God gave her peace; her land rejoiced.

A thousand claims to reverence closed In her as Mother, Wife and Queen."

The following is the new council for Local Improvement District No. 4: Division 1—T. Allan, Division 2—Marshall McLeod, Division 3—No return, Division 4—H. Hogan, Division 5—No return, Division 6—D. Maloney.

The first meeting of the new council will be held Jan. 25, city hall, Edmonton, commencing at 2 p.m. in Newport, a dozen in Covington and a large acreage in the East and West under water.

Indianapolis, Ind., Jan. 21—Floods are reported from every important river and tributary in Indiana. In Southern Indiana the situation is serious.

Lexington, Ky., Jan. 21—Flood conditions still prevail over Eastern Kentucky. Railway trains are all behind and thousands of logs have been put. The Kentucky river is at a standstill today after a rise of eighteen feet.

SOME WELL-KNOWN PUGILISTS IN EARLY LIFE

Joe Gans Pecked Oysters—Ernie Was a Printer — Fitzsimmons a Shoe Clerk — Other Gossip About the Prize Ring

Gym Bagley, an Ottawa celebrity who is looked upon as reliable an authority on pugilists as the well-known Horsey in cards, was asked for gossip himself the other day what the well known fighters of today did "for a living" before they came to work and took to the big mist game. Concerning some of the pugilists Bagley says:

To begin with Jim Jeffries—his life on the line anyway—several bottoms of bottles. That's where he acquired the steam to his punches.

Bob Fitzsimmons worked in a shoe store in Timaru, New Zealand. He lifted about that didn't come in No. 9. D widths and wore lace-up shoes. They came in four were nailed on and his customers never kicked at aught it for the price. It was this work that taught him to hammer the way of the championship. If you find anything here looking like an English job, blame it on the atmosphere.

Jim Corbett was as change artist in a prize bank. Counting other people's money gave him an itch to cop some for himself and the safer, stronger play was through the box office.

Jack O'Brien was a character. As a ship boy of the Vanderbilt he had nothing on land when he was telling his old man a dump cart on the Philadelphia prize. Jack never came to appear in a jumper and jeans any more, but he still cutting it hard.

Tommy Ryan peddled tinware in Syracuse. He's still in the business, but only works on short days.

Rick McCoy never worked at anything. Ten Shivers played the ragtime piano and between turns got up in the morning and lit the fire on board Uncle Sam's battleship. He was so eating of coal that the foreman of the stove hole got stuck on him and wouldn't part with his companionship when promotions were wanting down stairs.

Battling Nelson could cook back in his springs. He is the memory of his time, but that always keeps him in the Democratic after building a way through a $25,000 prize.

Joe Gans had a job getting oranges and picking the bones out of fish in Eastbourne. It was associated with the fact that made him no wiser.

Gene Rubin was a freight handler in Akron, O. That's how he came to be a boxer. He's still a clerk. That's how he learned to handle the goods in his own way.

H.S. DOUBLE SCORE ON THE PRINTERS

In the Second City League Game—No Score in First Half

The High School team succeeded in doubling the score in the city league game with the printers at the Thistle rink Saturday night. The quality of hockey was very closely allied to the fine climate in that there was all kinds of it during the contest. The struggle was very even in the first half, the printers' defense was particularly strong and the breathing period came with the showing 2-2. The second period looked, for the first few minutes, as if it would be a full brother to the opening half, but after a minute play, McLean gladdened the hearts of the printers' supporters by scoring on a lift from quite a distance out. The printers were game and started to run up a score, but fell down in six and five minutes respectively the school boys got in counter, and the lower score another tally.

It was expected the struggle would be close, and it was, though the High School were just a trifle the best aggregation, due to the fact that they have a rink of their own, and practice daily almost, while the printers only have two nights a week to get in shape. For the printers the defense players were the pick. Downing's goal tending was the real thing, and the printers' forward line, McLean and Daymont a pretty stubborn defense to get through. Elliott played well in goal, but showed lack of practice. Parole was too tight for the job. Keays was fast on his skates and when he masters the stick-handling end of the business will be a useful player. Nash was in the game all night and kept the check busy all through.

The High School were principally from team playing, the point cover point and forwards frequently combining force and bringing the puck down. They had a well balanced team, with considerable weight. On Saturday's form, their best talent is Deak, Taylor, Keays and Walker. The point is speedy and got off with a number of pretty rushes during the game. McKeeney is also a specialist. Walker handled himself well all the way through and it would be hard to improve on the all-around work of Taylor.

P. McKeeney, a school pupil, refused, but seemed to play little or no attention to the tripping and chopping. The teams lined up as follows: HIGH SCHOOL PRINTER'S. Goal: Downing. Defense: Elliott, Taylor, Keays, Walker. Forwards: Parole, Nash. The game was a fairly sharp lookout for that variety of play and these penalties were handed out. The teams lined up as follows: HIGH SCHOOL PRINTER'S. Goal: Downing. Defense: Elliott, Taylor, Keays, Walker. Forwards: Parole, Nash.

Hockey

It is now arranged that four teams of the city will play in two groups: High school v. Alberta College and Intermediate v. Strathcona. The winners in each group must capture three victories and then the final will be played. The games in the latter group have been arranged as follows: To be played: Jan. 23—Strathcona at Intermediate, Jan. 24—Intermediate at Strathcona, Feb. 2—Strathcona at Edmonton. If extra games are necessary they will be played off on Feb. 8 and 9. The school has not arranged their series yet, but the final contest must be played by March 1st.

All intermediate players are urgently requested to be at the rink promptly at 8:30 to-night for practice. A good workout is desired prior to the game with Westville on Tuesday. The team for the match will be picked after practice.

Stetler will likely be here for the rink match with Westville and a contest with the Intermediate, early in February. They are high priced and also they are Manager Duboué for all hotel expenses and 25 per cent. of the gate.

The intermediates will have their first match with Westville on Tuesday, and a contest with the Intermediate, early in February. They are high priced and also they are Manager Duboué for all hotel expenses and 25 per cent. of the gate.

The second game in the Veterans Cup series will be played at Strathcona to-night.

DRIVING CLUB'S FIRST MATINEE

Extra Heats in Each Event—Class C. Finishes a Dead Heat

In spite of the below zero weather there was a fair turnout of horses and spectators at the Driving Club's matinee races on the river Saturday afternoon. Three events were started and all were well contested, particularly in the opening heats, Class C provided a dead heat, and in Class A drivers Tim landed the opening trial by half a length. Class B provided the biggest field and the game were all pretty evenly gaged. McKinnley's Pat Nolan landed the second heat to May's Nora.

Burster D. Stewart didn't let the cold interfere with his work as he had to recall Class B on several occasions and always had the field well lined up before he let them off.

Jan. Morris, J. H. Lubbock and Dr. Irving were judges and R. Gordon handled the stop watch. The time is quite correct, though not strictly accurate, as it had to be caught from the fall of the flag and it is possible the horses were a couple of seconds away before Stewart dropped the bunting. The winners were:

CLASS A. F. Ogilvie's Dan Pat. 2 1 1. R. Inglis' Waver Tip. 1 2 2. W. Stevens' Doris. 2 3 3. Time, 1:11, 1:17, 1:18.

CLASS B. J. McKinnley's Pat Nolan. 1 1 1. C. May's Nora. 2 1 2. W. J. Macdonald's Don B. 3 2 3. C. J. Roberts' Noddy. 4 3 4. F. Field's Randy C. 5 4 5. Taylor's Tony. 6 5 6. Time, 1:17, 1:17, 1:15.

CLASS C. J. McKinnley's Barney. 1 1 1. H. Taylor's Spot. 2 2 2. J. Morris' Miss Collis. 3 3 3. Time, 1:24, 1:27, 1:32.

"Dead heat" occurred in connection with the event passed off without a hitch. There was very little unnecessary delay in starting the horses to the starting post and the accommodation for taking care of the horses between heats was all that could be expected.

"Bach" Boys Play Hockey

The early birds for the printers' High School rink at the Thistle on Saturday saw a hair raising contest between two teams from Strathcona, the street boarding house, which for distinction were dubbed No. 1 and No. 2 teams. The former won by the narrow squeak of 1-0. Just how the winning goal was scored is a mystery. Mann did the trick, and can explain just how it happened, but the rest of the crowd don't take much stock in his story. However, the goal umpire showed up his hand, and possibly kept the crowd from fearing the contest would go on all night without a score, let them have the rally without a protest. The teams were:

No. 1—Goal, Birch; point, Strang; cover, Talbot; forwards, Mann, Miller, Chiolett.

No. 2—Goal, Mann; point, Ball; cover, Dillon; forwards, Sibbald, Doris, Stockdale.

Referee—Greenwood.

After Certificates

There will be a meeting of the city league association to get at the rink after the High School-Helmick match. The principal business before the board is the question of issuing certificates to Deacon of the seniors, to play with Helmick's, and to Sibbald, who was to turn out with Helmick's.

There's also a protest on file and may be dealt with if the parties interested agree. The printers allege that Taylor, who was in the High School team on Saturday, is not eligible to play with that organization, not being a student at any educational institution in the city at the present time.

Second Cup Games To-Night

The second game in the Veterans Cup series will be played at Strathcona to-night, and promises to be a more closely contested struggle than the initial clash last Monday. Strathcona's 2-3 victory over Lacombe on Friday shows the challengers are rounding into form, but the supporters of Edmonton look to win by a comfortable margin.

The team will line up—Edmonton: goal, Gray; point, Handford; cover, Power; winger, B. Blumfield; centre, Deacon; wings, C. Blumfield, and Campbell.

Strathcona—Goal, Hummel; point, Hall; cover, McKee; winger, Handford; centre, wings, McKee and Landerum.

J. Gorman (will referee, with Duboué judge of play.)
